

Jesus: (The Perfect Marriage--Mate, (28-Miracles) #2347

WOW ... THE PERFECT MARRIAGE:

I have asked many happy couples (for many years) ... what they would say is (the key to a great marriage). I got a lot of great suggestions and a lot of the same identical repetitive comments too. I also attended a lot of seminars and I was involved in Marriage Encounter for about 10-years as well. And I was married to the same wonderful woman for 53-years as well. We had three children.

Well after many years and many discussions with people ... I got one suggestion that really seems to summarize all of the very-best ideas I have ever heard. Now when I tell people about this SUMMATION--SUGGESTION, it gets rave reviews as “the real true and best key”.

I will be very brief ... but ... please read all of what follows ... because if you skip one word; you will miss the key IMPORTANT point.

SUMMATION SUGGESTION: If you want to have a perfect marriage (with all of its ups and downs and struggles and problems and happy solutions; which will surely occur in every marriage) ... then do the following:

Be sure to find (or to tactfully, patiently, and carefully create “a friend of God”). And then; marry that person.

A friend of God is very simply defined as: “Anyone who tries to do the will of God our creator (every single day).” A friend of God consistently asks God for direction and inspiration every day ... asking God to please help them to make good decisions in their life. They know that God always gives inspirations to those who ask (yes, always). (Ref: Jeremiah 7:22-23 and 33:3; Matthew 7:7; Luke 10:42; John 10:27; James 1:5-8). Just imagine what God does -- when we ask Him a question!

NOW CONSIDER THIS ... If your spouse or mate mistreats you (and is also a friend of God); then, the next time they go to speak with God ... God will scold them about the treatment they gave you. And God will tell them how to make things right (primarily because you too -- are God's friend too).

There you have it; 50-years experience to help you. Please tell other young people considering marriage or just still dating ... to find a friend of God to marry -- so that they are forewarned of the only right way to do it. If you know someone who did not marry a friend of God ... just tell them that they now have to ask God (their own best friend now) ... about what to say and do about this each day now. God will make tiny suggestions each day to help them to change their spouse and to have their spouse or mate become a friend of God. Helping people to become friends of God (i.e. helping them to hear God's voice) is something that will absolutely bring them joy (for ETERNITY)!

When a person asks God a question, God answers. The first answer we get is from God because He does not let anyone answer His questions. He answers you. (Ref. Jeremiah 7:22-23, 33:3 Mark 4:15).

This all works; but you have to do it for it to work. God welcomes (everyone and anyone) who asks Him for advice. You will find proof of this in all of the Bible passages above.
